

Diamond Collection

The BagasseWare®

Diamond Collection

plates and bowls offer an elegance not often found in disposable tableware. Beautifully molded, it is suitable for both hot and cold foods and makes an elegant addition to any table setting.

A stylish choice in sustainability, made from renewable bagasse — the fibers that remain after the juice has been extracted from sugarcane.

The BagasseWare Diamond Collection is BPI certified compostable in a municipal or commercial compost facility. They are the perfect earth-friendly alternative to Styrofoam or paper counterparts.

- Produced from renewable plant products with short growing cycles
- Microwave and freezer safe
- Oil and grease resistant
- BPI certified compostable
- Meets ASTM D6868 standards
